Gift Trust (Jointly Owned Plans – Survivor To Benefit) – Discretionary

Important notes

Please read these notes prior to completion. The following trust form should not be used for pension plans.

This trust form is designed for use with jointly owned protection plans issued by Royal London (and the divisions known as Bright Grey and Scottish Provident) where the surviving plan owner is to receive the benefits if the other dies. The gift trust is designed to allow payment of the plan proceeds to the trustees without the need for a grant of probate/letters of administration/confirmation.

The additional purpose of this trust is to ensure that for inheritance tax purposes the benefit of the plan is outside the estate of both donors if after the event giving rise to payment of the plan proceeds the other donor fails to survive by more than 30 days. In this case the trust fund is held upon trust for the discretionary beneficiaries. If the other donor survives the event by more than 30 days, the trust fund is held upon trust for that donor.

The trust is a discretionary trust, which means that on death or diagnosis of terminal illness, critical illness or total permanent disability of the person covered where the surviving donor fails to survive by 30 days, the trust fund will be held for the benefit of the discretionary beneficiaries. The trustees have flexibility to determine which of the discretionary beneficiaries is to receive the trust fund and in what shares and proportions. The donors can add to the list of discretionary beneficiaries specified in the trust at any time. The donors can also complete a letter of wishes to guide the trustees as to which of the discretionary beneficiaries they would like to receive benefits.

The payment of premiums by the donors will normally be exempt for inheritance tax purposes by reason of the annual exemption or the normal expenditure out of income exemption. A transfer of an existing policy into trust will be a transfer of value for inheritance tax purposes but the amount of the value transferred will normally be negligible if the life assured is in good health at the date of the creation of the trust.

Any increase in the value of the trust fund will potentially be outside the donors' estates for inheritance tax purposes. For this reason, therefore, the donors must not be named as a beneficiary. If they are, then this will prejudice the tax effectiveness of the trust.

The trustees may need to register the trust with HMRC's Trust Registration Service. This would normally only be the case following a claim being paid or if the trustees have a liability to tax. For more information on when the trust needs to be registered see <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/register-a-trust-as-a-trustee> or speak to your financial adviser.

The trust form and these notes in relation to its use are for general guidance only and are based on our current understanding of the law as it applies in the United Kingdom and HM Revenue & Customs practice. No responsibility can be taken by Royal London or any of its subsidiary companies for the interpretation of the law or future changes in the law or practice. Tax liabilities and the ability of the donors in law to set up a trust are dependent on individual circumstances. We strongly recommend that you take separate legal and taxation advice prior to signing the trust form and while the trust is in existence particularly if any changes are to be made to the interests of beneficiaries.

Completing the trust form (The numbering denotes the relevant clause in the trust form.)

The donors – creating the trust

The trust form should be completed by the donors before transfer of the plan to the trustees. The date of the trust is the date the trust form is completed and signed by the donors. The date must be inserted under each donor's signature on page 11.

The trust form can be completed for a plan that is already in existence or in anticipation of a plan being put in place where an application form has been completed or is yet to be completed.

Each donor must complete their full name, including any middle names, and address. Under this trust, the plan is assigned to the trustees and the legal owner of the plan will be the trustees.

Who are the trustees?

The trustees are the legal owners of the trust fund, initially the plan, holding it upon trust for the benefit of the discretionary beneficiaries.

F1 The donors (to be entered here) are automatically trustees.

F2 There must be at least one additional trustee entered at F2 for the trust to operate effectively, but up to four additional trustees may be nominated. We recommend that at least two additional trustees be appointed at the outset since an additional trustee will be required if the death of a donor results in there being only one trustee remaining. If the donors and the single additional trustee die before the plan is paid and there are no other additional trustees, probate or confirmation will be required before payment can be made. After a donor's death all the trustees will normally be required to sign the discharge form issued by the insurer.

We strongly recommend that one of the trustees be independent, i.e. someone who is not a named beneficiary or donor of the trust. Trustees must be aged 18 (16 in Scotland) or over. The full name, including any middle names, and address of each additional trustee must be completed. The additional trustee must have agreed to take on the role before being listed on this trust form. It is the donors' responsibility to provide them with a copy of this trust form – Royal London will not contact the trustees directly. The donors should also inform the trustees that their details may be checked against databases held by Experian, and that Royal London may also pass information to organisations involved in money laundering and fraud prevention in order to protect themselves and their customers from theft and fraud.

D2 The donors may appoint new trustees to act with the existing trustees of the trust. After the donor's death, the trustees may appoint new trustees.

D3 The donors, so long as there are two trustees or a corporate body still acting after the removal, may remove a trustee from office.

What is included in the trust?

F4 The plan will be the initial trust property, known as the trust fund. Since the plan is to be transferred into trust, details of the application for the plan or of the plan itself if it is already in force should be inserted in box (a) or (b) as appropriate. If the plan is not in force yet, the application date will be the date the paper application was completed or the date the online application was submitted. The trust form can also be completed in anticipation of an application being submitted, in which case the date of the application will be the date the paper application form is to be completed or the date the online application is to be submitted. This means the trust form will pre-date the application.

Further assets may be added to the trust fund later, by transferring them to the trustees.

The discretionary beneficiaries

F12 The trust contains a list of discretionary beneficiaries in whose favour the trustees may appoint the whole or part of the trust fund, either permanently or revocably. During the donors' lifetimes, this can only happen with their consent (see clause B1 i, proviso (A)).

An appointment is effected by a simple signed and witnessed deed made by the trustees. A specimen deed of appointment is available from us.

Subject to any such appointment any income of the trust fund, unless accumulated, is distributable as it arises among the discretionary beneficiaries, in such shares as the trustees, acting by majority, decide. The discretionary beneficiaries include the children of the donors, their remoter issue and the current, former or surviving spouses or civil partners of any of the foregoing and the spouse or civil partner of the donors (excluding either of the donors). The donors may add additional persons to the class of discretionary beneficiaries by completing the space provided at F12 v and vi. The donors may also add additional persons to the class of discretionary beneficiaries at any time by a signed document given to the trustees while they are alive.

The donors must not be included as discretionary beneficiaries, as this will prejudice the tax effectiveness of the Trust.

Signing the trust

- G. The trust form must be signed by the donor. It may be physically signed, or by using a digital signature and the PDF accompanied by a completion certificate generated by a digital signature platform that identifies the person signing. The date must be completed underneath the donor's signature.

Once signed, a copy of the trust form must be returned to us for noting. You can send a scanned copy or a digital photograph of it by email or post a copy to the address below. You should not send us the original form, which should be kept with the plan documents and other trust papers.

A Introduction

- A1 The Donors are the beneficial owners of the Plan and wish to declare trusts on which the Plan is held and for that purpose appoint themselves and the Additional Trustees as the initial Trustees of this Trust.
- A2 The Definitions in Part F shall have the meanings set out in that Part.

B Trust Provisions

- B1 i The Trustees shall, subject to the provisions of Clause B2, hold the Trust Fund upon trust for the benefit of such one or more of the Discretionary Beneficiaries in such proportions, on such terms and conditions and subject to such new or other trust purposes, powers and provisions as to both income and capital (including power to accumulate during such period permissible by law) as the Trustees may during the Trust period revocably or irrevocably appoint in writing PROVIDED ALWAYS THAT (A) no appointment and no revocation of any revocable appointment shall be valid without the written consent thereto of the Donors if then living (or the surviving Donor) and (B) any such appointment or revocation shall not invalidate any prior payment or application of all or part of the Trust Fund (whether capital or income) made in exercise of any of the powers conferred by the Trust Terms or by law.
- B1 ii Subject to any and every exercise of such power of appointment, the Trustees shall pay the income of the Trust Fund arising during the Trust Period to or for the benefit of all or such one or more of the Discretionary Beneficiaries as the Trustees shall in their absolute discretion determine.
- B2 If one of the Donors shall survive by 30 days an event in relation to the other on the occurrence of which event the Plan monies become payable, the date on which such event occurs is to be taken as the date on which the Plan monies become payable, the Trust Fund shall be held upon Trust for the surviving Donor absolutely. If the first Donor fails to survive such event by 30 days Clause B1 shall apply.
- B3 Subject to the provisions of Clause B2, the Trustees may not pay or apply the Trust Fund or any part of it to or on behalf of the Excluded Person.
- B4 In the event of the failure of the above Trusts, the capital and income of the Trust Fund or such part of it with respect to which such failure has occurred, shall be held upon Trust absolutely for the intestate heir of the last of the Discretionary Beneficiaries to die, provided that in ascertaining such heir the Excluded Person shall be deemed to have predeceased the last beneficiary so to die.

C Administrative Provisions

Such powers shall not be restricted by any principle of construction but shall operate according to the widest generality of which the foregoing words are capable, notwithstanding that certain powers are more particularly set out in the following clauses.

C2 Power of investment

Any money to be invested may be applied in the purchase or acquisition (either alone or jointly with other persons) of such investments, shares (including partly paid shares), stock, funds, securities, land, buildings, chattels or moveable property, deposits and securities (including bonds or securities payable to bearer) or other property of whatever nature and wherever situate, and whether involving liabilities or producing income or not, or in making such loans, with or without security, as the Trustees think fit.

C3 No requirement to diversify investments

C5 Transfer of Trust Fund

Notwithstanding that a beneficiary is absolutely or indefeasibly entitled in possession to a share of the Trust Fund he shall not be entitled to call for the transfer to himself of his share of any divisible asset if such transfer would in the opinion of the Trustees reduce disproportionately the value of the asset remaining in the hands of the Trustees or other realisation of any indivisible asset unless such transfer or sale is called for by persons of full legal capacity who together are the owners of the entirety of the beneficial interests in the asset concerned.

C6 Life assurance

The Trustees may take out or take over policies of assurance on the life of any person with full power to surrender, vary or otherwise deal with any such policies as if they were the absolute owners of these policies.

C8 i The Trustees may borrow and raise money either without security or on the security of the Trust Fund, any part of it or any assets comprised in it, for any purpose (including the investment of the money so raised as part of the Trust Fund) and may mortgage, charge or pledge the Trust Fund, any part of it or any assets comprised in it, as security for any money so raised.

C8 ii The Trustees may enter into borrowing arrangements jointly with other persons, whether involving joint or several liability.

C9 Powers in relation to real property and chattels

The Trustees shall have power to permit any person beneficially interested in the Trust Fund or any part of it to occupy, or reside in or upon, any real or immovable property, or to have the enjoyment and use of chattels or moveable property for the time being comprised in the Trust Fund, on such terms as to payment of rent, rates, taxes and other expenses and outgoings and as to insurance, repair and decoration, and generally upon such terms as the Trustees think fit.

C11 Power of appropriation

The Trustees may appropriate any part or parts of the Trust Fund in or towards satisfaction of the interest of any beneficiary and may for such purpose place such value on any property as they think fit.

C12 Powers in relation to minors

The Trustees may pay or transfer any assets comprised in, or any income of, the Trust Fund to the parent or guardian of any person who has not yet attained full legal capacity (a "minor") who is beneficially entitled to such assets or income, and the receipt of such parent or guardian shall be a full discharge to the Trustees.

C13 Power to appoint agents

The Trustees shall have power to employ one or more of their own number or other suitably qualified person or persons, other than the Excluded Person, to advise on the administration of the Trust, and to pay such person or persons out of the Trust Fund appropriate remuneration for his or their services without prejudicing the right of any Trustee to resign office.

The Trustees shall have power to delegate the investment of the Trust Fund on a wholly discretionary management basis.

C15 Trustee charging

A Trustee which is a trust corporation or corporate body authorised to undertake trust business shall be entitled to charge and be paid such remuneration (A) if it is appointed by the Donors as may be agreed by the Donors prior to such appointment and (B) if it is appointed otherwise than by the Donors, in accordance with its published terms for acting as a trustee.

C16 Power of restriction and amendment

The Trustees may release or restrict the future exercise of any power conferred on them and amend or add to the administrative provisions of the Trust by deed or deeds.

D Appointment of Trustees

- D1 There shall at all times be at least two Trustees unless a corporate body is a Trustee.
- D2 The power of appointing a new trustee or trustees shall belong to the Donors during their lifetimes or for so long as the Donors retain full legal capacity (and where two persons are the Donors this power shall be exercisable by them jointly during their joint lifetimes and then by the survivor of them during his lifetime).
- D3 The Donors (or surviving Donor) for so long as the Donors retain full legal capacity, may remove one or more of the Trustees by sending a Notice of Removal in writing to the Trustee in question at his last known address. The sending of the Notice by recorded delivery post will be deemed due service of the Removal Notice. The removed Trustee shall co-operate (without expense to him) in executing any documents or consents required in order to terminate effectively his Trusteeship and to vest the Trust Fund in the continuing Trustees. This power of removal shall be exercisable only if there are at least two persons remaining as Trustees after the removal of any Trustee, unless a corporate body remains as sole Trustee after the removal. On the Donors (or surviving Donor's) death or incapacity this power of removal shall vest in the continuing Trustees, subject to the same conditions.
